Hércules

The prehistoric saber tooth, the largest feline ever to have lived on earth, is the focus of this cabinet. The handcarved wood sculpture of the saber tooth's skull functions as the handles for this architectural cabinet. Once the doors are opened, the crumpled gold leaf shines through in its many drawers. s many drawers. American walnut makes these doors solid and grandiose, but a well engineered hinge system makes the handling of these doors a smooth, luxurious experience.

“Dientes de sable”, el felino más grande que jamás haya vivido en la tierra, es el foco de este “cabinete”. La escultura de madera tallada a mano de los dientes del Smilodon, funciona como las manivelas de apertura de este “cabinete” arquitectónico. Una vez que las puertas se abren, el pan de oro arrugado brilla a través de sus muchos cajones. El nogal americano hace estas puertas sólidas y grandiosas, pero sus sistemas de bisagras bien diseñadas hace del manejo de estas puertas una experiencia suave y lujosa.
